THE LATE W. J. HUNTINGFORD

PRESENT HOME OF THE WAINWRIGHT STAR

A Popular Business Man Passes On

Since our last issue of the Star, it is with deep regret that we are called upon to record the passing of our beloved Editor, the late Mr. W. J. Huntingford.

Born in North Wales in 1876, he moved to England and served his apprenticeship of seven years as type setter and printer. Shortly after the Boer War he came to Ontario in Canada and later settled in Saskatchewan and was employed in various paper and job printing plants before moving to Swift Current where he founded the "Swift Current Sun" which he operated for several years. Leaving there he went to Biggar and established the "Biggar Independent", both of these papers are still publishing today, a tribute to the foresight of the first editor.

After selling his business at Biggar, the deceased moved to Edmonton where he was employed by both the Journal and Bulletin.

In April 1916 Mr. Huntingford came to Wainwright to manage the "Wainwright Star" which was owned by the late Charles Morrison. In August of the same year he married Miss Nellie M. Lister of the district and they moved back to Edmonton where he was employed by the Bulletin, Journal and the Eagle Press.

Together with Mr. Tilley, the late Editor formed a partnership and founded the Tilley Press.

Moving to Wainwright in November, 1918, he purchased the Wainwright Star which he has managed and published almost continuously since that time until his recent illness.

Mr. Huntingford has been an ardent Oddfellow for over 45 years and during that time held almost every office of the Order in the Province, last March being elected to the position of Grand Master of I.O.O.F. in Alberta. In 1941-42 he was appointed to the office of Grand Warden of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the I.O.O.F. at Des Moines, Iowa and the following year was appointed Grand Guardian of the same Order.

The deceased had been in failing health for the past several months and was admitted to the Wainwright hospital early in November suffering from a heart condition, and passed away as stated above on Monday, January 22nd, despite all medical care and treatment.

He leaves to mourn his loss a loving wife; two sons, Walter Charles with the R.C.A.F., and George Gordon at home; and a daughter Mabel (Mrs. Sam Greig) of Nan-ton.

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2:00 p.m., from the Elite theatre with McLeod's funeral parlors in charge, a full account of which will appear in next week's issue.

The W.A. served a delicious lunch at the close of the meeting.

PRINCIPLES

ON TWO FEET

The common complaint in the Province of Quebec is that in most cases the employers are English and the workers are French, and that this fact helps to keep the two races apart.

This is really much more of an opportunity than a problem. It all depends on how you look at it. The president of a paper company approached last month by the union, which was in a position to negotiate an agreement with him, welcomed this as just such an opportunity.

He offered to meet the representatives of the union at the mill on the Saturday and suggested that all the employees and their wives should meet at the parish hall on the Sunday afternoon "for coffee and a bun."

His suggestion was welcomed and his wife accompanied him on the 300-mile trip.

The negotiations went forward in a friendly spirit. They decided that the first clause in the agreement should hold both parties to abide by the spirit of the agreement as well as the letter. The yardstick throughout the discussions was simply "what is right." The result was an agreement which the head of the union called the best in the province.

Before Sunday afternoon arrived word had gone round the village of what had happened the previous day, so all the employees and their wives started to clap enthusiastically when the head of the company approached. Addressing the gathering in French he spoke of the menacing spread of class conflict elsewhere on the continent and expressed his sincere desire that honest teamwork and Christian principles should characterize all their dealings. The parish priest and the head of the union said that for their part they wanted the same. The head of the union also emphasized to the men their responsibility under the new agreement.

It does not end there. The officials of the union, now recognized by the company, consider that their function is much more than to gain more concessions. With the management and the parish priest they are working on ways to improve the health and well being of the community and practical steps have already been taken.

STERILIZATION FOR MENTAL DEFECTIVES

REGINA—Sterilization of mental defectives should be given careful consideration, it was stated in the report of the Saskatchewan Health Services Survey Commission which was released recently.

"Much experience has been gained in this field during the last 50 years in America and Europe," the report said. "One should not be deterred by the fact that Nazi Germany has practised sterilization in a brutal and wholesale manner, but should study the results obtained in such countries as the Scandinavian countries, Switzerland, and some of the American States where sterilization has been practised humanely and cautiously with good results."

Farm Notes

ECONOMY IN FEEDING FOR MILK AND MEAT

The improvement of cattle is the subject of a pamphlet written by Dr. John Hammond for the Bath and West and Southern Counties Society of England. The author remarks that if the British farmer is to produce as much milk as called for in the recommendations of the Hot Springs conference, it would mean increasing the liquid milk output by about 60% and keeping a million more cows. This statement seems at variance with the opinion of another writer who says that fresh milk distributed through the milk marketing board is 37% more than in 1939 and that Britain has more cows than ever before in her history.

If Dr. Hammond is somewhat pessimistic on prospects, he gives some very sound advice on the feeding of cows and steers and the need for economy in using the restricted rations during the winter months. He states that a cow giving 320 gallons of milk a year uses 56% of the ration to keep her alive and only 44% for milk production, whereas a cow giving 958 gallons uses 35% for body maintenance and 65% for milk production. We have heard of animals eating their heads off. Dr. Hammond illustrates this by the statement that for each pound of edible meat produced, a 3-year-old steer consumes 22 1/2 lbs. of dry matter in the feed, whereas the 18-month-old steer consumes only 11 1/2 lbs. to make the same gain.

Regarding the feeding of concentrate to dairy cows, Dr. Hammond recommends 3 1/2 lbs. for each gallon of milk above first gallon which she should produce from bulky food. During the period from 10 days after calving until no further weekly increase in milk flow occurs the cow should receive concentrates for one gallon more milk than she is actually producing at the time. For the cow in calf, and especially the heifer in calf, feed concentrate sufficient for two gallons of milk for about six weeks before she is due to freshen. The concentrate should be properly balanced with an amply high ratio of protein to carbohydrate.

Dr. Hammond neglects the subject of mineral supplements so important in the control of many diseases of livestock. Milk fever is now known to be caused by a lack of calcium in the blood, anaemia by lack of iron, rickets and bone malformations by lack of phosphorus and calcium, goitre and joint-ill, also hairlessness in young pigs, by lack of iodine, "pinning" disease of sheep by lack of cobalt, and slipped tendon of poultry by lack of manganese. It is now believed that sterility in cows can often be corrected by the addition of manganese to the mineral supplement. Another British writer sums up the situation well in these words: "The 'complete' mineral supplement makes a sincere attempt to safeguard animals not only against known deficiencies but also against probable and possible ones". One thinks of the adage: "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure".

BRITAIN NEEDS BOTH

SHELL, DRIED EGGS

In addition to dried eggs, Britain now requires all A Large and A Medium shell eggs that can be shipped during the fall and winter months, and about 40 per cent of the overall surplus during the next twelve months. This does not mean, according to Poultry Services, Dominion Department of Agriculture, that there should be further expansion of the poultry industry. Every effort should be made, however, to secure maximum production from existing flocks.

The price paid by the Special Products Board for fresh eggs for export will net the shipper the same as for eggs for drying, provision having been made for the additional export costs of the new export cases, packing material, wiring, branding, and freight in the price agreed upon with the British Ministry of Food.

REINFORCEMENTS FOR OUR FIGHTING MEN

Reinforcements for our fighting men is a subject of intense discussion. As an old soldier I can give some evidence about the vital need for reinforcements of men in battle. No armies ever have all the reinforcements they could use. Whenever reinforcements are lacking, men have to stay under fire longer than they should, so the risk of their being injured or killed increases.

But other kinds of reinforcements are needed too. Reinforcements of foodstuffs and of every kind of weapon and munition the soldier uses. Then to make these arms, weapons and munitions, reinforcements of money, too, are needed in great quantity. Patriotic civilians at home, therefore, can do their share in helping, as far as possible, to save the lives of the men in battle by providing ample foodstuffs and munitions, and all of us can provide the money, both by paying taxes and by buying bonds.

There is one most important matter, it seems to me, ever to remember. If it were not for the gallantry of our fighting men we should have no farms, no factories, no jobs and no liberty. Surely the least then that we, who live at home in safety, can do is to provide all the reinforcements we possibly can in the way of trained men, munitions and of money.

The U.S. farm income from marketings in 1945 may show a drop of about 5% compared with 1944. German cities are liable to suffer severely from the lack of bread this winter, reports Broomhall, as the large plants are being destroyed by bombing—Argentina is now harvesting the smallest flaxseed crop in more than two decades.

Western Canada's wheat crop is placed at 428.3 million bushels in the second official estimate, an increase of 5.3 million bushels over the previous forecast—Turkey reports ample supplies of bread grains to meet domestic requirements during 1944—France will be self-sufficient in wheat and oats this year, reports the London press.

HEALTH

A HEALTH SERVICE OF
THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION AND LIFE
INSURANCE COMPANIES
IN CANADA

TORONTO—Many Canadian communities at the request of the Health League of Canada will observe a Health Week in February, the observance to coincide with the holding of National Social Hygiene Day, February 7th. Health Week will open Sunday Feb. 4th.

Purpose of the "Week" is to bring messages to Canadians on health as a basic factor in their lives—personal communal and national. The League contends that only a nation of optimum health can discharge fully such great international responsibilities as will have to be undertaken by the Dominion in the coming year.

Endorsement of the Health week plan already has been received from departments of education and health in six provinces. Also, churches, schools home and school associations and numerous women's and other organizations and service clubs have indicated a desire to co-operate in the extensive and ambitious program which is in course of preparation.

The Northern Alberta Branch of the Red Cross is benefitting to the extent of nearly $400 a month as a result of unique broadcast activities by CJCA's "Jo-Jo".

Jo-Jo is a mechanical creation that was brought into prominence by Hal Yerxa, the "Uncle Hal" of the Byers Flour Mill Kiddies' Program ten months ago. Today, Jo-Jo's total fan mail is in the tens of thousands, and his Red Cross contributions are nearing the $4,000 mark.

Requests for a Jo-Jo visit to towns and rural communities were so numerous that the station decided to broadcast the Kiddies' Program each Saturday from a different town. For the entertainment received, the audience contributes to the Red Cross. At the time of writing the citizens of Lamont and District lead the contribution parade with $195. Waskatenau is second with $160. Jo-Jo will broadcast from the following towns during January and February:

January 27 — Ladue
February 3 — Stony Plain
February 10 — Fort Saskatchewan
February 17 — Mundare

MATCHES HAVE CAUSED SERIOUS FIRES IN OVERSEAS MAIL . . .

WARNING!

NEVER PACK ANY INFLAMMABLE
MATERIALS IN PARCELS . . .

MATCHES AND LIGHTER FLUID in overseas parcels have started serious fires. Think what this means. Thousands of bags containing letters and parcels lie deep down in a ship's hold, lurching in a rough sea.

If matches or lighter fluid take fire—AND
THEY DO—that means that brave seamen must go into the smoke-filled hold and risk their lives. Thousands of parcels may be destroyed—thousands of men disappointed.

CANADA POST OFFICE

WON'T YOU HELP?

We know that you would not knowingly endanger lives and mail. So think—and then don't put matches or lighter fluid in Overseas Mail.

Household Hints

EVERY CHILD SHOULD HAVE A PARTY

Here's a dessert suggestion. Easy to prepare, easy for small stomachs to digest and very intriguing to the eye—a regular three-in-one party dessert:

Peanut Brittle Renset-Custard
 1 rennet tablet
 1 tablespoon cold water
 1 pint milk (not canned)
 1/3 to 1/2 cup finely rolled peanut brittle
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 Make rennet-custard according to directions in package, adding finely rolled peanut brittle to milk. Chill. When ready to serve, garnish with whipped cream and berries, fruit or coarsely broken up brittle.

ADEQUATE BREAKFASTS AND CEREALS FOR LUNCH

In addition to the real food value of the cereal, we can have the benefit of the milk, cream, fruits or other foods which are natural accompaniments when we go to make up these modern luncheon surprise dishes.

Here is a suggested luncheon menu—followed by two recipes that you will find well worth trying.

MENU

Vegetable Soup      Melba Toast
Grape-Nuts with
Baked Custard and Sliced Bananas
Milk or Cream
Cheese Crackers
Beverage
Gnocchi with Spanish Sauce
 1 cup milk
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup Grape-Nuts Wheat-Meal
 1/2 cup grated American cheese
 1 egg, well beaten
 Paprika
 Heat milk in saucepan. Add salt and Grape-Nuts Wheat-Meal gradually, stirring constantly. Bring to a boil and cook and stir 3 minutes. Remove from heat. Add 1/2 cup cheese and egg and blend. Pour into shallow pan. Chill. Place spoonfuls or 2-inch squares in shallow baking dish and cover with Spanish Sauce. Sprinkle with remaining cheese and paprika. Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 15 minutes or until cheese is melted. Serves 4 to 6.

Apple Sauce Cookies
 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
 1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
 1 teaspoon soda
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 teaspoon cloves
 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
 1/2 cup shortening
 1 cup sugar
 1 egg, unbeaten
 1 cup thick sweetened apple sauce
 1/2 cup raisins
 1 cup Grape-Nuts
 Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, soda, salt, and spices and sift again. Cream shortening, add sugar, and cream well. Add egg and beat well. Add flour, alternately with apple sauce, mixing thoroughly. Add raisins and cereal and blend. Drop from teaspoon on greased baking sheet 2 inches apart. Bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 15 minutes, or until done. Makes about 40 cookies.

In spite of a war-torn world, we in America still have much to be thankful for. Here are some culinary tips for that holiday feast. You mothers will appreciate them.

Orange Cranberry Relish Salad
 2 oranges
 1 lemon
 3 apples
 1 pound (4 cups) fresh cranberries
 2 1/2 cups sugar
 Quarter unpeeled oranges, lemon and apples, remove seeds and core and put through food chopper. Put cranberries through food chopper. Combine, add sugar and blend. Let stand a few hours. Use as a relish with meats, hot or cold.

Baked Squash with Sausage Links
 1/2 cup finely diced onion
 2 1/2 tablespoons butter, melted
 1 box (16-oz.) quick-frozen cooked squash, thawed
 2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 Dash of pepper
 1/2 pound sausage links.

Saute onion in 1 tablespoon butter until tender but not browned. Add to squash with egg yolks, remaining 1 1/2 tablespoons butter, and seasonings. Turn into greased shallow baking pan, 8 x 4 x 3 inches. Separate links; prick each well with sharp-tined fork to prevent bursting during cooking. Place in hot skillet and cook 4 to 5 minutes. Arrange on squash. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (375°F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Serves 3 to 4. This war-free delicacy is cooked and pureed before quick-freezing, and is ready to serve as soon as it is heated.

JASPER PARK READY FOR POST WAR TOURISTS

Montreal—When summer visitors begin going back to the Canadian Rockies after the war they will find Jasper National Park all ready for them, according to Major J. A. Wood park superintendent, interviewed in Montreal today.

For the past two summers and during the present winter, Dr. Melver Cowan, University of British Columbia biologist, has been making a wild life survey of the sanctuary which extends over 4,200 square miles, Major Wood said. He has been locating summer and winter ranges and, according to his finds, the animals are very healthy and there has been no falling off in numbers. There has been a tremendous increase in elk while moose, mule deer, mountain sheep and goats, black bears and the smaller animals are to be found in the park in great numbers.

"Few of the bears actually came into town this past year," the superintendent said. "We had plenty of these visitors looking for handouts the year before, but the latest berry crop was good. The deer are as tame as ever but we have never had one to take the place of 'Old Jasper'. He was the pet of all the children who used to hang affectionately around his neck and tie ribbons to his horns. He met all the trains and made straight for the dining cars where the crews always had something for him. 'Old Jasper' was a familiar figure in the streets of the town for five or six years. He died in the winter of 1940."

Fishing conditions in Jasper are better than ever before, Major Wood reported. Rainbow trout eggs were collected in the spring and eastern brook trout eggs in the fall. Some Great Lake trout were also cultivated and the fish were raised in a hatchery on the Maligne River until they were fingerlings, then they were distributed to the lakes throughout the park.

The roads and trails are in good condition, he said. No new trails have been opened up during the war, except the one-way secondary roads to facilitate the transport of supplies and equipment to the fire rangers. "We had no fires last summer as with certain improvements, we have overlap and lookout towers are connected by telephone. We are establishing meteorological stations at strategic points so that we may know of conditions at all times and adjust our organization accordingly. Watchmen are on duty at all times," he declared.
